The formation of the Canadian Parking Association more than 25 years ago led to the realization that the parking industry is rich with professionals from many disciplines. Contributions to the success of the industry range from the tireless dedication of volunteers to the creation of innovative systems and technology development. Many members of the parking industry have been acknowledged by Principals of Read Jones Christoffersen through two awards: The Ted Seeberg Memorial Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Canadian Parking Industry and the Ed Keate Award for Outstanding Contribution to Advancement of Knowledge in the Parking Industry.

ELIGIBILITY

Nominations can only be submitted by members of the Canadian Parking Association (CPA). If you are not a member, you could join the CPA online at canadianparking.ca/en/members/, by phone: 613-727-0700 or e-mail: info@canadianparking.ca or approach a member to suggest a nomination. Recipients need not be members of the Canadian Parking Association.
