

THE PARKER

Magazine Advertising Rates, Sizes & Specifications

The Parker is the first fully-bilingual parking trade magazine in the world. It contains current and relevant information on technical, political, and economic concerns facing the parking industry in Canada. Articles come from many related fields, and members are encouraged to share their experiences by contributing articles about their operations and experiences.

AGREEMENT

- The space rates apply only to camera ready or digital ads. Assembly and makeup services will be invoiced separately.
- The Advertiser agrees to the insertion of advertising in The Parker at the time and for the sizes and rates stated, and agrees to pay The Canadian Parking Association the amounts stated as ads are published. Payment is due upon receipt of invoice. Two percent (2%) per month interest will be charged on accounts over 30 days.
- This contract or any portion may be cancelled by the client giving notice in writing seven weeks prior to the publishing date.
- The maximum liability in the event of error is limited to the ad space rate for that issue. In such event, contract will be extended by one issue for same advertising space at no charge. Contract price will remain unaffected.
- The Parker Magazine and the Canadian Parking Association reserve the right to refuse advertising at any time without penalty. All advertisements are accepted and published with the understanding that the advertiser assumes liability for content of advertising matter (including text, representation and illustrations.) Placement of ads (other than confirmed cover placements) is at the discretion of the Editor.
